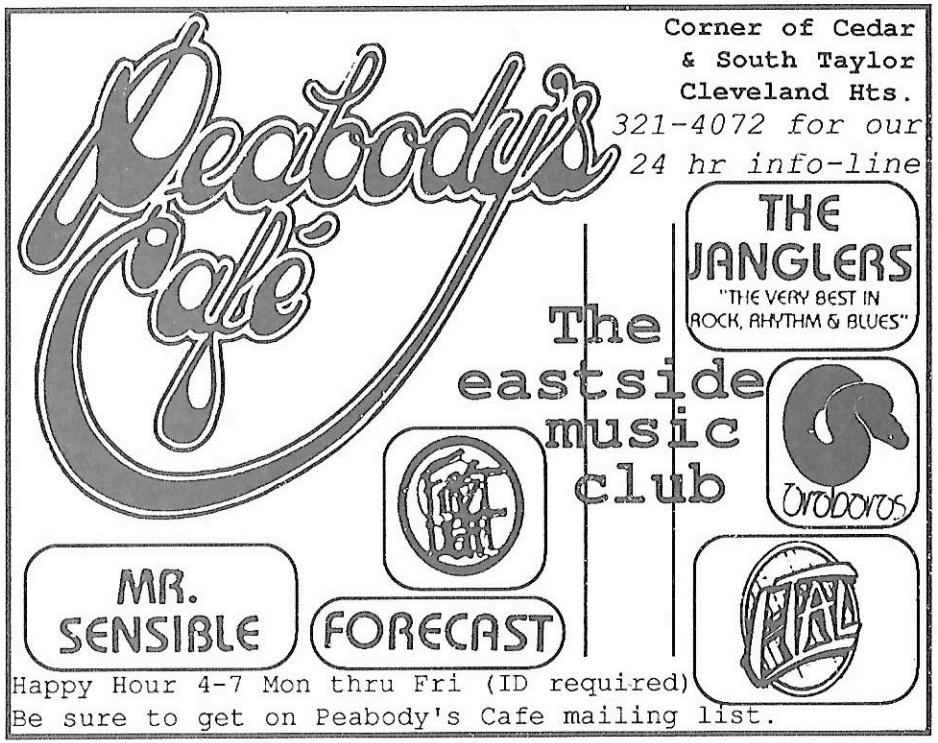
Because every detail matters.



Dear College Radio Listeners,
Cleveland is privileged to have such a wealth of alternative media. All too often, though, it's the big guys who get the credit. Well, that's alright, we don't ask for any credit. We will keep striving to bring you the best of alternative music. The College Radio Coalition has pooled the efforts of each college station to ensure that a diverse plethora of music and programming is hurled across the airwaves into your living room, car, and office. WUJC needs your input! We welcome comments and suggestions as we continue to grow and improve. Spring Radio-thon is coming soon! Thanks to your support during last year's Radiothon we were able to purchase a new antenna with de-icers to bring you clearer sound and winterlong programming. We are also expanding our record library! Listen for details about this year's radiothon in the spring. Tune in to WUJC for your source of alternative music, public affairs programs, and entertaining series. Listen for upcoming concerts and give-aways, and look for WUJC promotional items at local events. We have many new voices on our staff bringing you music from all genres. Give WUJC a listen.

WUJC continues its wide variety of public affairs programming throughout the week with:

Lift Your Heart-(Tuesdays 9:30-10am) A professional, relevant, award-winning documentary style program that discusses modern problems from a Christian viewpoint. Topics have included hunger, refugees, consumer debt, and the disabled.

In Black America-(Tuesdays 10-10:30am) Reflects the Black American experience in contemporary society. Guests have included Susan L. Taylor, editor-in-chief of Essence Magazine; former N.B.A. star Spenser Howard; and a two part tribute to the late Congressman George T. "Mickey" Leland. Host John L. Hanson Jr. provides a better understanding of Black life in America.

Carroll Corner-(Tuesdays 4-4:30pm) Hostess Claudine Melich focuses the spotlight on life at John Carroll University with interviews, news, sports, and special features. Claudine invites students and faculty for thirty minutes of lively conversation.

Soundings-(Tuesdays 4:30-5pm) From the National Humanities Center, Soundings features a wide array of topics and interviews each week. Topics have included the Sepphoris archaeological project with Carol and Eric Meyers, "Crimes and Consumers" with Jean Christophe Agnew, and "Literacy Then and Now" with J. Paul Hunter.

New Dimensions-(Tuesdays 9-10pm) Entertains, enables, and enlightens like no other radio program, with its focus on contemporary "leading edge" thinkers from all walks of life. Past guests have included Mickey Hart discussing world music, "whole living" with psychologist Marsha Sinetar. Guests scheduled for the Spring are Doug Boyd describing his "journey" travelling on a mystic spiritual quest; Personal Mythology co-authors Stanley Krippner and David Feinstein examine the nature of our personal mythology and our lives.

Eastwatch-(Thursdays 9:30-10am) Focuses on Cleveland's cultural, social, and political aspects. The shows, originally aired on Cablevision, have featured the Salvation Army's Lt. Col. Ernest Payton; Dr. Arlene Rieger, Superintendantof Chagrin Falls Schools; and Seth Taft and Patricia Nash for the Substance Abuse Initiative Program.

Poet's Corner-(Thursdays 10-10;30am) John Carroll University English Professor Dr. James Magner interprets the works of the masters. Also featured are some of Magner's own works.

Radio Dialogue-(Thursdays 4-4:30pm) Covered are a wide variety of international expertise through conversations with fellows and guests of the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars. Topics have included Japanese poetry, the Supreme Court, NATO, family law, and the drug problem in Latin America.

Adventure Radio-(Thursdays 4:30-5pm) Follow the adventures of Jack Flanders in the Fourth Tower of Inverness in the theater of the mind!

New American Gazette-(Thursdays 9-10pm) A presentation of the Ford Hall Forum quizzing the top newsmakers of our era. Former Congresswoman Barbara Jordan hosts this series that features lively addresses and a broad range of viewpoints. Past guests have included Pulitzer prize winning cartoonist Paul Szep, thinker Leonard Peikoff, activist Daniel Berrigan, and the Reverend Jesse Jackson.

WUJC continues its alternative programming into the 90's. Here are some highlights of listener favorites:

Rap

Yeah Boyee! WUJC is in full e-f-f-e-c-t with two funky to def rap shows. Check out "The World Famous Rap Show" with E.L. Dogg, on Wednsedays from 6-8 pm, and tune in to the "Cold Dominating Cuts Show" with Lee Mars, every Friday from 5-7pm (word to mommy). Experience a wide variety of rap music, old school, new school and the future of rap with two stylistically different shows covering the full spectrum of hip-hop. The Hip-Hop Coalition features local artists every week, bringing you the finest in Cleveland area MC's and DJ's, Cleveland hip-hop artists can be heard dropping def demos, smooth lyrics, funky "power moves", ruthless re-mixes and various vinyl releases. So Yo, bum rush the show and it's time to get busy, wax and tax in '90 cuz class is in session on 88.7 FM WUJC.

Atmospheres

Explores the gray area between musics. From new acoustic to new electronic; from different lands on earth, to the far reaches of space. Atmospheres is music behind, on, and beyond the horizon of the 1990's conventional music. Listen and enjoy. Atmospheres is featured Sundays from midnight to 2am, and Mondays and Tuesdays from 10pm-midnight.

Modern

This semester WUJC offers the most modern music ever heard on these airwaves--over 60 hours of brand new music, as well as a few of your favorites thrown in. Only on WUJC can you hear everything from progressive/experimental/industrial dance to guitar tainted rock. Set your tuner to 88.7fm and leave it there! The music of tomorrow is heard today on WUJC.

And do not forget.....

The Sonrise Show featuring contemporary Christian music weekday mornings from 6-8am; our Sunday shows that bring you ethnic music and news from around the globe; four blues shows spotlighting not only the best national talent, but also the latest in local blues acts; reggae on Mondays and Tuesdays; and the very best in hard rock and heavy metal, with an accent on heavy! Everything you always wanted all in one place!

Thanks and appreciation to all of our staff who volunteer endless hours to help keep WUJC and college radio in Cleveland on the air!

We are all saddened by the loss of our friend and fellow dj Dana Harris. Although he was on the air for only a short time, we will miss him.

YOUR 90's ALTERNATIVE

Happy New Year to everyone--it's hard to believe that it's 1990 already!

With the new year comes a new semester and a new outlook at the station. I hope by the time you get to this letter, you have already looked at the new schedule, and have seen all of the new shows. I for one am quite excited to see so many new people getting involved at WUJC, that's what we are all about isn't it? What I'm seeing now is the future of our station, and it doesn't look bad. This may sound corny, but it's the way I feel. I hope in four years that someone who loves this place as much as I do will be writing something similar. The outcome will not only benefit this station, but college radio in Cleveland, as well as all of our listeners.

Now the staffers who have been around here awhile feel left out--please don't! A mere thank you is not enough (unfortunately at this time it is all I have) for all of the hours, days, months, and years you have put into WUJC. You are the foundation for the future, and it's a strong foundation to say the least!

Last but not least, a thank you to all of our listeners old and new for your support in the clubs, at the shows, and during our radiothons. We are a small but mighty group, and if we keep growing who knows what will happen . . . !

Thank you for picking up the guide, and enjoy the year!
